We're at a crossroads. Technology is no longer the biggest driver of disruption. Ecological, Biological, Societal and Geopolitical Disruptions are coming at us.

How do you thrive in an unpredictable world? Is your Organisation ready for a world in permanent flux, with changing Consumer Behaviours, Systematic Shifts and new employee Skillsets?

Going back to the old normal is not a sustainable strategy. Why not use the advantages of the Never Normal to accelerate your Organisation into the 21st century?

On the 31st of May, Peter Hinssen will uncover how companies, leaders and employees can survive and thrive in the Never Normal. He will outline strategies, mindsets and cultures for success in this new world.
